

PRESS RELEASE For immediate release

Enter the circus of dance!

Quebec City, May 27, 2023 - Diverse programming announced for the next edition of Bel air de fête, celebrating Quebec's National Day at Parc de La Chanterelle on June 24. This event will mark the celebration of the National Day of Quebec under the theme "Enter the dance". A variety of free activities will be offered for the occasion.

Starting at 11 a.m., Bel air de fête will offer young and old a day filled with a variety of activities. Families can enjoy a selection of fun and entertaining activities throughout the day. Inflatable games, make-up, youth show, circus artists and much more are on the agenda.

From 6:30 p.m., the site will open its doors to the public for the evening show. The whole thing will begin at 7:45 p.m. with a patriotic speech and a tribute to the flag. At 8 p.m., people on site will have the privilege of attending a show featuring Félix Lemelin, followed by Marc Dupré at 9 p.m. Their performances promise to thrill the public! To top off the evening, a traditional fireworks display will light up the sky, offering a breathtaking visual spectacle.

Bel air de fête has become an unmissable annual event in the Val-Bélair sector. We invite citizens to join us in celebrating the Quebec's National Day! Loisirs-Action Val-Bélair would like to thank the many partners who make this event possible: Quebec City, Desjardins – Caisse populaire du Piémont Laurentien, MAXI Val-Bélair, Lou-Tec, Transport RDC, Pyro Concept, Patates Plus!, EXP Artisan Brasseur, Eric Caire – Member of Parliament for La Peltrie, Canadian Heritage, Mouvement national des Québécoises et Québécois, Government of Quebec, La boîte à fumée, and Dépanneur Éclair.

For more information and to find out the complete program of the event, please visit website at lavb.ca or contact Loisirs-Action Val-Bélair at 418 915-9965.

- 30 -

Media contact:
Dominique Bellemare
info@lavb.ca
418 915-9965